PART I—Section 2.

GENERAL

No. J. 2901—Legis. 19-16-1, dated 13th February 1917

Whereas Regulation IV of 1916 amending the rates of stamp duty payable on bills of exchange and promissory notes payable otherwise than on demand but not more than one year after date or sight came into force on the 30th June 1916, but the Regulation was published in the official Gazette on the 6th July 1916, it is possible that there might be certain bills of exchange or promissory notes drawn in Mysore after the 30th June 1916 and before the 6th July 1916 which though properly stamped according to the old law may be deemed to be not properly stamped under Regulation IV of 1916.

2. With a view to ascertaining the extent of such transactions and the necessity for the passing of a validating Regulation, the public are hereby invited to send, in writing, to the Secretary to Government, General Department, not later than the 1st April 1917 information of all bills of exchange (including hundis) and promissory notes drawn in Mysore between the 30th June 1916 and 6th July 1916 (both days inclusive) and which may still remain undischarged or not renewed.

3. The information may be sent in the form annexed.

The examinations in the Optional Subjects will be somewhat wider in scope than those for the Pass B.A. Degree of the Madras University and the B.A. Degree of any other Indian University and the papers will also be of a somewhat higher standard. The numbers of questions set in each paper may, at the discretion of the Examiners, be more than the number required to be answered to secure full marks.

10. Every candidate is required to take up two Optional Subjects. Only those candidates who have satisfied the Examiners in the Written Examination shall be called upon to appear for the Viva voce or the Practical Examination. Viva voce and Practical Examinations will be held either at Bangalore or Madras as will be duly notified to the candidates at the time of the Written Examination.

11. The Written Examinations shall be conducted in the order of time and subjects to be notified hereafter.

The days and hours of the Viva voce and Practical Examinations will be announced during the Written Examination.

12. Candidates who obtain not less than two-fifths of the total number of marks in group A, not less than one-third of the total number of marks in groups B and C of the Compulsory Subjects, and not less than one-third of the total number of marks in the Optional Subjects selected shall be arranged in the order of the total marks obtained. The list of candidates so arranged shall be submitted to Government.

13. Not less than four persons will be selected in order of merit from the list of successful candidates and admitted to the grade of Assistant Commissioners as Civil Service Probationers.

14. The candidates thus admitted into the Mysore Civil Service will be under probation and training as specified below :—

(a) During the first two years after appointment they shall pass—

(i) an examination in riding ;

(ii) departmental service examinations required according to the rules in force for the time being ; and

(iii) such of them as have not taken Kannada as their optional language in a University or other recognized Public Examination, an examination in that language according to a prescribed standard.

A Probationer failing to pass the above tests by the end of the two years of probation may be allowed a further year's grace. Failing to pass in the third year his name will be removed from the list of Probationers.

During this period the Probationers will be trained in office work and other duties as far as may be practicable and will also receive a training in Treasury work, Revenue Survey and Elementary Engineering.

(b) (i) After the Probationers have passed the required examinations they will, at the discretion of Government, be appointed to the several departments of Government in accordance with the exigencies of service and individual aptitude and qualification, provided that Government may for sufficient reason at any time transfer an officer from one department to another.

(ii) Probationers intended for employment in the Accounts Department will, during the third year, be attached to the Comptroller's Office and trained in Civil and Public Works Accounts. In addition to practical training, they will be required to appear for and pass the Departmental Accounts Examinations which may be specified from time to time.

(iii) All other Probationers will, for a period of one year, be trained in the different branches of work in a taluk till they thoroughly understand the details of the work done and the duties performed by every official of the Revenue Department from the Amildar (or other officer of corresponding rank) downwards.

(iv) Probationers intended for employment in the Survey Department will, in addition to training as in (iii) above, be trained in the work of the department and will be required to pass the departmental examination in survey work.

A Probationer who does not give satisfaction during his course of training will be liable to have his confirmation deferred, or to be removed altogether from the service.

15. (a) During the first two years of probation the Probationers will draw pay at Rs. 200 per mensem.

(b) During the third year of training after passing the examinations, the Probationers will draw pay at Rs. 250 per mensem.

(c) On becoming fully qualified by passing all the prescribed examinations and going through the course of practical training with credit, a Probationer will be confirmed as Assistant Commissioner, 5th Class, on Rs. 250 and afterwards rise according to the scale given below:—

To Assistant Commissioner, 4th Class, on Rs. 300. After three years' approved service in the 5th Class.

To Assistant Commissioner, 3rd Class, on Rs. 350. After three years' approved service in the 4th Class.

To Assistant Commissioner, 2nd Class, on Rs. 400. After three years' approved service in the 3rd Class.

To Assistant Commissioner, 1st Class, on Rs. 450. After three years' approved service in the 2nd Class.

Promotions to higher appointments in the State will be according to vacancies and by selection on the ground of merit.
